Cinderella Story

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful girl named Cinderella. She lived with her wicked stepmother and two stepsisters.

They treated Cinderella very badly. One day, they were invited for a grand ball in the king's palace.

But Cinderella's stepmother would not let her go. Cinderella was made to sew new party gowns for her stepmother and stepsisters, and curl their hair. They then went to the ball, leaving Cinderella alone at home.

Cinderella felt very sad and began to cry. Suddenly, a fairy godmother appeared and said, "Don't cry, Cinderella! I will send you to the ball!"

But Cinderella was sad. She said, "I don't have a gown to wear for the ball!" The fairy godmother waved her magic wand and changed Cinderella's old clothes into a beautiful new gown!

The fairy godmother then touched Cinderella's feet with the magic wand. And immediately she had beautiful glass slippers! "How will I go to the grand ball?" asked Cinderella.

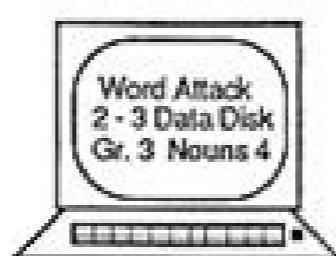

The fairy godmother found six mice playing near a pumpkin, in the kitchen. She touched them with her magic wand and the mice became four shiny black horses and two coachmen and the pumpkin turned into a golden coach.

Cinderella was overjoyed and set off for the ball in the coach drawn by the six black horses. Before leaving, the fairy godmother said, "Cinderella, this magic will only last until midnight! You must reach home by then!"

When Cinderella entered the palace, everybody was struck by her beauty. Nobody, not even Cinderella's stepmother or stepsisters, knew who she really was in her pretty clothes and shoes.

An Empty Purse

By Sara Orne Jewett

Read the story. Then answer the questions.

Little Miss Debby Gaines was counting the days to Christmas; there were only three, "I've got to step fast to carry out all my plans," she said to herself. Miss Debby was sewing as fast as she could, mending a warm old petticoat. She heard a knock at the door, "Come in!" she said. "Mrs. Rivers!" Mrs. Rivers seated herself. "What are you doing something pretty for Christmas?" she asked. "I thought I'd give it to old Mrs. Bean, this would make her real comfortable," answered Miss Debby, "Presents aren't anything unless the heart goes with them." Early on Christmas morning Miss Debby woke up and could hardly wait to eat her little breakfast before she got out her best bonnet and Sunday cloak to begin her Christmas errands. Old Mrs. Bean was coming out of the kitchen, when her friend wished her a merry Christmas. "Miss' Bean; a warm petticoat I've fixed up nice, you can put it right on and feel the comfort of it," said Miss Debby. "You are real kind," she said eagerly. Miss Debby went to the heart of the town again. Christmas was on Tuesday that year. Miss Debby Gaines came to a large house; a man-servant opened the door. "I wish you a happy Christmas!" she said. "Dear Miss Debby! Come and sit down! Mrs. Wallis said, "I'm glad somebody wanted to see me," said Mrs. Wallis and gave Miss Debby an excellent cup of tea. She was like a good angel as she sat there smiling. So Miss Debby came back to her little home again. She lighted her lamp, and saw on the table a great package with a note beside it; the note was from Mrs. Rivers. "Something you said the other day," Miss Debby read, "and you must feel that my heart goes with these presents that I send you first with love." Miss Debby's face shone with joy and this was the way that Miss Debby's Christmas came to its happy end.

Answer each question.

1. What Miss Debby was doing?
2. How did she get ready on the Christmas morning?
3. Where did she go first and what did she give?
4. Did Mrs. Wallis enjoy Miss Debby's company?
5. What did she see when she lighted the lamp in her house?
6. How do you celebrate Christmas?

THE WEATHER IN ENGLAND

The English say "Other countries have a climate, in England we have weather". It happens because the weather changes more often than in other countries. British winters are mild and springs are cool because of the winds that blow from the Atlantic Ocean. They blow 2 days out of every 3.

In spring sunshine and showers follow each other so often during the day that an umbrella or a raincoat is absolutely necessary in England. The weather changes so frequently that it is difficult to forecast. It is not unusual for people to complain (жаловаться) that the weathermen were wrong.

The weather in spring is generally mild but sometimes the days are really fresh. Spring is the season when nature awakens from its long winter sleep: the temperature grows, the sky becomes blue, and the sun grows warmer. Everything is full of new life again. The days grow longer and warmer; the ground gets covered with green grass.

Summer is the hottest season in England. The sunrays become hot, the days are long, and the nights are short and warm. It's time for holidays, when people go to the seaside for sunbathing and swimming. It usually gets hot in July. The summer nights are short, but they are wonderful.

As for autumn it isn't so nice. It's a season of winds and beautiful sunsets. The leaves turn yellow and reddish and fall to the ground and the birds migrate to warm countries. In autumn the days become shorter. A spell (короткий промежуток времени) of sultry weather in September is called Indian summer or "Golden Autumn". In England September and October are warm and dry, but November is the foggiest month. Late autumn is generally an unpleasant season. Everything begins to take a different colour. The trees look bare. The sky is overcast with low clouds. Everything looks gloomy (мрачный).

In winter in England they can hardly forecast their weather. Sometimes it rains and sometimes it snows. In England it isn't so cold in winter as in our country and they don't get so much snow as we get here. The rivers in England never freeze, that's why children there go skating very seldom. When there are 8 degrees of frost in England everyone complains of hazards.

Answer the questions:

1. What do the English say about their weather?
2. What winters and springs do the English have?
3. Are umbrella and raincoat absolutely unnecessary things in England?
4. What is the hottest season in England?
5. What people do in summer?
6. What happens in autumn?
7. What weather do the English have in winter?
8. Is it as cold in England as in our country?

Grade 6 Reading Comprehension Worksheet

Aristotle Greek Philosopher

Read the passage. Then answer the questions.
Aristotle lived many years ago. He was born in a Greek colony about 350 years before the birth of Christ (B.C.) His father, Nichomachus, was the physician for the king of Macedonia. Unfortunately Nichomachus died when Aristotle was quite young. When he was 17 years old he was sent to Athens to study. Athens was a center of learning and he joined the Academy and studied for twenty years under Plato who was the foremost philosopher and teacher of that time. When Plato died Aristotle left Athens and went to Mysis where he taught for three years in the king's court and married the king's daughter Pythias. They had a daughter and Pythias died when she was a young woman. Some writers claim that Philip, king of Macedonia, invited him to come and teach his son Alexander who was 13 years old at the time. He tutored him for five years. This same Alexander would later go on to conquer the then-known world. He returned to Athens. Aristotle set up his own school, the Lyceum, he would teach there for 13 years. The school he started continued for more than two hundred years. Aristotle was a genius. He studied many different subjects; science, plants, animals, the human body, weather, the earth, the heavens, politics, government, ethics and philosophy. He taught moderation, urging his students to follow the middle road between extremes. He defined virtue as the disposition of the soul that promotes human flourishing. Aristotle thought common men of virtue were capable of governing themselves. He died soon afterward in 322 B.C. at the age of 62.

Answer each question.

1. What do you know about the early life of Aristotle?
2. What did he do in Mysis?
3. What did some writers claim about Aristotle?
4. Where did Aristotle set up his school?
5. How many subjects did Aristotle study?
6. What were the teachings of Aristotle and when did he die?
