Avoid hours of online research and wasted time playing with margins in Microsoft Word and let our resume generator make a resume for you. We guide you through creating each resume section step-by-step — you just need to fill in the blanks. With our online resume builder, you can create a resume that showcases your greatest strengths and unique professional and educational experiences. Instantly download your completed resumes in Microsoft Word and PDF formats. Our professional resume templates are Applicant Tracking System friendly (and won't be rejected by HR software), giving you a competitive edge. Send and track your job applications within our resume builder to keep your job hunt organized. We want you to land more interviews, and ultimately your dream job. To help you do that, we provide our users with an exclusive "Ask an Expert" service, featuring a real time 1-on-1 Certified Professional Resume Expert (CPRW). Our online CPRW will review your resume for accuracy and clarity, and provide clear recommendations for how to improve your resume — dramatically increasing your interview call-back rates. Our resume builder provides: Professional resume templates with basic, modern, and creative styles A complete and filled-out resume regardless of your work history, skill set, or education A free critique from a resume expert The ability to build, print, and download your resume for free in minutes Create a professional resume today and land your dream job soon. There are five main sections that every resume should include: Contact Info, Resume Introduction, Professional Experience, Education, and Skills. Keep in mind that, depending on your industry, your resume may need to include additional sections. For example, nurses should include a section about their professional licenses and certifications — which you can easily add in our resume builder. To learn more about what to put on your resume, visit our how to write a resume guide. No two jobs are exactly alike. Even if you apply for two positions with the exact same title, it's extremely likely that each company highlights different skills and traits in their job descriptions. That's why we recommend that you tailor your resume to address the specific requirements in the job description before you send out your application. Usually this would be a headache for job seekers, but our resume creator allows you to build fully-customized resumes in just minutes. If you need matching cover letters for your resumes, then you've come to the right place. Along with our resume generator, we also offer a state-of-the-art cover letter builder. The best part is that if you sign up for a Resume Genius account, you get unlimited access to both! In under ten minutes you can have a matching resume and cover letter, and be ready to apply for your dream job. We also recommend that you check out our free cover letter examples and expert guide on how to write a cover letter. Choose a resume template based on your personal preference and the impression you want to make on hiring managers. We design every template so that it's flexible enough to suit any industry, level of experience and education, or skill set. No matter which template you choose, you can be confident that it's optimized to highlight your unique experiences and abilities — and that hiring managers will like the way it looks. Yes, we offer an extensive library of free resume examples, covering all industries and 90+ job titles. Our experts, overseen by our resident CPRW Mark Slack, meticulously wrote each resume sample to demonstrate what an ideal resume in every industry should cover. Whether you aren't sure what to include in your resume, or you just need some inspiration to get started, we highly encourage you to read a sample from your industry. Start writing a CV (extensive version) or a Resume (As short as possible). Try out our CV Creator / Resume Builder PDF right now. A Resume Versus A CV A Resume is abbreviation of professional career, education and achievements relevant to the position we apply for. It may contain the so-called "resume objective" or professional goal related to the position, as well as the "career summary statement". The purpose of this document is to stand out from the crowd. A CV takes up to 2-3 pages. It is a chronological description of professional career, education, achievements, awards etc. The CV is static, it should not be adapted to concrete the profession. Privacy policy while using the online wizard. Below are the opinions of those who have already used the online creator maker: PDF templates are professional and enable the candidates to easily stand out. I rate highly legibility, use of space on the page and colours of the templates. My documents look much better. I'm happy with the templates that I found on the website. At last, I managed to develop a creative CV. It's a good option for everyone who wants to found a job fast. That's what I wanted, I'm very happy with the result. Every Company Wants To Hire Winners. Present Yourself So. When your future is at stake and there is no second chance, aim for nothing less than the best! I had no idea what a 'good' CV looked like... I had no idea what a 'good' CV looked like, but with CV-Template I could just follow the format, presenting all the information required. I liked especially the fact that I could personalize my CV so that it reflects my character. EstherFix (21), Chemist What a convenience! Even for a "computer illiterate 50-year-old" I'm a computer illiterate 50-year-old citizen, and what a convenience! The tutorial is clear and basically you want to play with your CV from that moment.The support desk was great, giving me the confidence to just play around with my CV until I was satisfied. Susan Cummins (50), Nurse "This is how a CV must look like" - Recruiters love it. When I saw CV-Template the first time, I was surprised about how extensive and thoughtful the tool was. This is how a CV must look like, and if this tool was available 15 years ago, it would have made the lives of all those applicants a lot easier.I recommend strongly to use a CV from CV-Template as the designs are exactly how a recruiter wants to see it. Taren Mohan (42), Experienced recruiter (18+ years) NAN728/Shutterstock No matter how qualified you are, you need an excellent resume to show it off. We've shown you how to create one in Microsoft Word, but you could also try an online resume builder. Here are some of the best. Best Paid Option: Zety Zety is a website that offers complete resume making services. Apart from resumes, you can also create CVs and cover letters. The number of templates it offers is limited, but they are customizable, which means there are plenty of options from which to choose. After choosing a template, Zety then helps you build your resume step-by-step. The resume maker is pretty powerful and offers a great degree of control without being overwhelming. You can customize almost every section of the resume in detail while using the preview section to see how the final resume will look. After you're satisfied, you can download your resume, or create a unique URL to make it available online. If you choose to host your resume, you'll get access to analytics about who's viewing it. Zety has three pricing plans. The Start plan is $5.99 per month. It includes four resume templates, as well as unlimited resumes and PDF or TXT downloads. The Premium plan per $17.99 a month and features 18 templates, a cover letter builder, and online resume hosting. They also have a three-month plan for $34.99 with no recurring payment that has all the same features as the Premium plan. Best Free Option: Canva Canva is known as the graphic design tool that everyone can use. But, it also features a pretty good resume maker. If you have some design experience, you can start with a blank slate, or use a pre-defined template and replace the dummy information with yours. All of Canva's graphic design tools are available for resume making as well. That means you can add elements, shapes, custom images, or more to your resume. It's not meant for complete beginners but surely can help you create a creative, standout resume. Canva's free plan is probably all you need for creating resumes. You get 1 GB of storage for photos and other assets, as well as access to thousands of templates (that includes resume templates along with dozens of other categories). There is a $12.95 per month Canva for Work plan that includes thousands of free photos, more organizational tools, and team collaboration. But if resume-building is all you're after, you won't need it. Best for Inexperienced Resume Creators and Industry-Specific Resumes: Kickresume Kickresume claims to help create resumes that get people hired. They offer plenty of resume templates on their site, which are helpfully organized by industry. For first-time resume creators, the sample resumes listed are useful since they are samples from people that actually got hired. Kickresume also features an interactive resume maker, or you can import your resume from LinkedIn instead. The free plan lets you access three basic resume templates and one basic cover letter template, so it's really just a way to see if you like the site. They also have a monthly ($15) and annual ($48) plan, both of which get you over 30 resume templates, 20 cover letter templates, an unlimited number of resumes and cover letters, and real resume examples. Best for More Customized Resume Versions: Visual CV Visual CV provides great templates to help you build your resume and then gives you tools to customize your resume for each job to which you apply. The design templates for the resumes are on-par with the other tools that we've mentioned, and the resume creator is also friendly and easy to use. You can import your existing resume or create a new one using the available templates. The templates are customizable to a great degree, so you don't have to worry about your resume looking similar to anyone else's. If you have no experience in designing or creating an effective CV, the VisualCV team will format your first resume for you (if you upgrade to a Pro plan). Plans start at $12 per month (billed quarterly). Don't create your resume from scratch. Use one of our proven resume templates and kick start your search from the beginning.Build a resume with a template Are you thinking of using a free online resume builder? Then you are in luck! We have catered for you not one, but eleven of the best free online resume builders available right now. If you already know what an online resume builder is and how it helps, you may skip the intro and go down straight to the reviews. What is an online resume maker? An online resume maker is an application that helps you customize and build a good-looking and functional resume for you. You can build your own resume using MS Word or Adobe Photoshop, or similar applications, but they take a lot of time and effort. You also need to be a pro in using that software to get what you want out of it. Besides, if you like decorating and designing your resume to make it more attractive, it will require even more efforts. A free resume builder can do all these stuffs for you. All you need to do is choose a predefined layout or template and fill in your information. And don't worry, they offer a lot of customization options so that you don't have to worry about others who use the same service. An online CV maker is quick and easy with predefined settings, yet there's plenty of space to reflect your personality. How online resume Builders work? Most of the Free Online Resume Builders work in a similar fashion, with minor variations. You must create an account with their website first. Then you can add your professional details, choose a layout, choose the desired download format and save the spectacular end result. Why did we pick these top free online resume builders? While picking a resume builder, we have considered the core functionality of building a resume and included only those online resume builders that allow you to download at least one fully-functional resume for free. We checked the ease of use, final output (your resume), free options that the builder has etc. We've tried and tested them all to provide you the most reliable information about the best free online resume makers. So here's our list of the best and really free online resume builders, in no particular order of performance.1.Resume Kick Resume is one of the best free resume maker available right now. It's easy to use and takes very little time to get your resume ready. Just visit Resumonk resume builder website, select a template and enter your details. Free version: 4 templatesDownload in .pdf format Premium version: Create and manage multiple resumeMultiple download formatRemove the Resumonk branding from the footerUnlimited color schemes, lots of templates to use, unlimited customization optionsCustom URL of your choice to share your resume onlineTracking option for you to know who has viewed your resume Pricing: $29- 1 year$49- one-time payment for lifetime use Verdict: Resumonk is a good option to build your 1st resume. You get only basic designs for free, but they are pretty professional-looking, so with the free version too, your purpose will be solved. The best thing with this resume builder is, you don't need to create an account to get a free resume. That's why you can save a lot of your time and get a resume built-up for you in minutes. RezRunner Ratings: 4 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.2.Visual CV The free version of Visual CV resume builder offers you a few templates and design choices for your resume. You need to create an account before you can start building your resume. You can add sections of your choice, or rename the existing sections according to your preferences. Free Version: 3 templatesDownload format: pdf only Premium Version: Choose from a wide range of templates and designsURL for online sharing, tracking & advanced analytics of performanceHide the Visual CV branding from resumeMultiple CV, resume and cover letter builder Pricing: $18- 1 month$36- 3 months Verdict: Like the Resumonk resume builder, Visual CV too offers only a basic version of your resume. Not a lot of customization or design choices are available for free in this resume builder, but still it is recommended for giving your resume a quick and fresh makeover. RezRunner Ratings: 3 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.3.Resume.com When it comes to appearance, Resume.com will beat most of its competitor easily. That's because this resume builder offers you lots of templates and customization. It is also easy to use. You have to create an account before you can use it. They show you all the existing sections of your resume in a single window, and you can edit each section by clicking on it. You can also add or change/rename an existing section, and move them up/down according to their priority. Free Version: Premium Version: Pricing: Verdict: Resume.com is one of the best and really free online resume builders out there. Their templates are standard and well-built, not very fancy design-wise, but practical. As there are no paid versions, you get everything you see in your free resume. You can share, print or download your resume in multiple formats. There are very few online resume makers available online that offer so many options for free. And hence it is a Highly Recommended resume builder! RezRunner Ratings: 5 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.4.Kick Resume Kick Resume is another resume builder that offers both free and paid versions. You need to create an account before you can use the resume builder service. You can add more sections in your resume and edit the existing one. This is good for building a corporate resume as the only free template has a no-nonsense formal appearance. Free Version: Only one templateNo customization of designs and appearanceDownload format is pdf only Premium Version: 30+ templates and creative designsFully customizable resume builderCover letter builderYour own personal website in minutesUnlimited entry and categoryMultiple languagesUnlimited number of resumes and multiple download formatOne-to-one assistance via email and chat Pricing: $6.85- 1 month$20.95- 1 year Verdict: Kick Resume is one of the top resume builders available online because of its usefulness. The free version does not allow space for much creativity, but you can add categories and sections according to your choice. This is a plus point for those who want to enrich their resume with different types of information. RezRunner Ratings: 4 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.5.Resume Help Resume help is a resume builder site with a bunch of helpful tools in the homepage itself. You can start by creating a resume from scratch, or surf through the choices of resume templates, view resume building tips or go through resume examples by profession. Like most of the online resume builders, resume help has a free version and a premium paid version. Free Version: All features are available in free version of this resume builder, but you can download only a single resume.Resume format for free version is .txt only. Premium Version: 23 resume templates, can be changed anytimeShow tips on every section of this resume builderAdd or edit categoriesSpell-checker optionPrint and download in different formats (docx, pdf or .txt) Pricing: $2.90- trial for 14-day$7.90- 1 month, all features$94.80- One-time payment for lifetime access Verdict: We like the features and customization options in the Resume Help resume builder. Special features like showing useful tips on every section, and editing each category in the preview mode allows you to get exactly what you have in your mind. Still, the limited downloading option in the free version of this resume builder is a thumbs-down for this one. RezRunner Ratings: 3 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.6Enhancv Enhancv is better than Resume Help when it comes to offering features for free. A lot of templates and designs are available in the free version. You can also download the resume you created for free in pdf format, but you have to create an account with them first. Free Version: Choose your template based on your industryAdd multiple entries in each sectionDownload in pdf format Premium Version: Lots of choices for templates, all divided into categories by industry Job typesFully customizable for each entry sectionMultiple downloading formatBuild and save up to 10 resume for each accountRemove branding Pricing: Verdict: Enhancv is one of the best online resume makers online. The premium version is better of course, but even with the free version of this resume builder you can achieve so much. The best thing about Enhancv resume builder is the availability of multiple templates for the free version. When you need a professional-looking resume quickly, Enhancv will be the best choice for you. RezRunner Ratings: 5 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.7Canva If Enhancv is the best free resume maker for serious corporate type resumes, Canva is the best for the creativity. The chances of finding another really free online resume builder that offers so much in terms of uniqueness, design and creativity is really thin. This resume builder takes your resume to another level. If you are connected to a profession like writing, photography or anything creative, Canva is the choice for you. Free Version: Lots of templates, background images, different styles and layouts are available in this resume builder.Highly customizable, font size, font style, line & paragraph spacing, all can be customized.Multiple download formats (pdf, docx, jpeg), sharing and printing option Premium Version: ResizingAnimated graphicsBrand kit to start your own website/ brand Pricing: $12.95- 1 month$119.40- Yearly Verdict: Canva is our favorite free resume builder for the wide array of options it offers. Once you start using Canva, you will not want to go back to others. The end product from Canva resume builder is so spectacular that you will be amazed. A resume from Canva is guaranteed to grab the recruiter's attention. Important Note: Use Canva resume with images etc only if you are physically submitting or sending it via email etc. If you believe your resume will go through ATS. For ex: You are submitting it online etc. Better not use image based resumes. RezRunner Ratings: 5 out of 58Standard Resume Like the name suggests, the free resume maker service from them is pretty standard and simple. They don't offer anything extraordinary when it comes to designs, layouts or features. Like Visual CV or Resumonk, Standard Resume is only suitable for you if you are content with a simple and straight-forward, crisp and fresh resume for general purpose. You need to create an account before you can use their services. Free Version: Only a basic version is downloadableNo choice of layouts or designs in this resume builder Premium Version: URL to share and track your resume performanceCustomization availableMultiple formats available Pricing: Verdict: Standard Resume is recommended because this resume builder offers an 'import data' option from LinkedIn, and you don't have to spend time typing in all your details. It saves time and though only a basic version is available for free downloads, when you are in a hurry, Standard Resume can be useful for you. RezRunner Ratings: 3 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.9Novoresume Novoresume is similar to Kick Resume in terms of what is offered in the free version, which is slightly better than Standard Resume. You get more than one layout and a few customizations for free. After you create an account, they show you a preview of your blank resume. You have to click on each category to add entries or add new categories in your resume. Free Version: A few templates available in this resume builderOne-page resumeOnly one resume can be downloaded for free Premium Version: 3-page CV/ resumeCustom layouts are available in this resume builderMultiple downloads, multiple formatsCustomizable backgrounds and color schemesIcons for interests and causesCover letter builderProfessional video tutorials to offer better suggestions while building your resume Pricing: $16/month- 1 month membership$9.99/month- 3 months membership$6.99/month- 12 months membership Verdict: Novoresume can be a useful resume builder service for those who are looking for a basic but useful and functional resume design. There's nothing much to talk about when it comes to the free version, yet it's worth a try because of their multiple free templates. RezRunner Ratings: 4 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.10Cake Resume Like its other counterparts, Cake resume also requires you to create an account as the first step. As you proceed, dialogue boxes appear in the screen, and you have to fill in information about your education, work experience, skills and other details. Very easy to use interface, a good resume builder service to consider. Free Version: A few templatesCustomization and adding sections/detailsFree download of pdf versionLimit of 1 resume/account Premium Version: Advanced: Unlimited number of resumes20+ templates and customization optionsRemove branding Pro: All features of Pro version plus Tracking resume performance, analyticsCustom domain nameExclusive support from resume experts Pricing: Advanced- $7.95/ monthPro- $15.95/ month Verdict: With Cake Resume, you can download your resume for free in pdf version, change the designs and use a few free templates, and can also publish your resume online. This resume builder offers a bunch of features for free. RezRunner Ratings: 4 out of 5 Once you complete resume building, run it through RezRunner to make sure your resume is optimized for ATS screening, which helps you get more interview calls.11Resume Genius The last entry to make the cut in our list of Top Free Online Resume Builders is the resume genius resume builder. This resume builder has some variations when it comes to choosing a predefined template. You need to create an account before proceeding. Free Version: 5-6 free templates to useSection-wise previewOnly one download for free Premium Version: Lots of templates and designsUnlimited downloads, Unlimited customizationOne-to-one consultationURL for sharing resume and tracking resume performance Pricing: $1.95- 14-day trials$39.95- 1 month full access$95.40- 1 year full access Verdict: Resume Genius is a standard resume building tool that includes a lot of useful functions for the premium users. However, the options for free users are quite limited. You can download only one copy of your resume and only 1-2 templates are free. RezRunner Ratings: 3 out of 5 So, which one of these fabulous free resume builders are you planning to use? Whichever you choose according to your preferences and needs, we hope it proves to be helpful. Irrespective of what you use for building resume, we suggest you run it through RezRunner, which will provide feedback on your resume. Please note each job description is different despite job title being same. Little changes and keyword optimization is required so that your resume passes through ATS.Run Your Resume Against Job Description to Get Suggestions
