We collaborate with hardwealthy families to offer a hand, not one out of hand. Â, "For a community of being together and healthy, it must be based on the love of people and concern for the other" .Millard Fuller- Habitat for Humanity International Founderwe believe in a future that is built on one Forte Foundation.in 1992, we started working locally with a small group of dedicated staff and their desire to eliminate poverty homes in our community. Today, we served over 100 families and changed the face of many neighborhoods. Over the years, we have maintained our implacable determination to offer families the strength and stability, offering a hand, not a hand. Any of what was made so far it would have been possible without the support we received from our generous dedicated donors and volunteers. We are so grateful for every dollar donated, every restore donation and purchase, and every time of time given. If we look to the future, we remain excited to have to be a blessing for homeowners in the future, to work without stopping with volunteers, and to continue transforming the communities of Anchorage, Alaska.in this video: dreams become reality seeing for families to "near drive," Habitat for Humanity's largest realization of Anchorage to date.
