Just as it was among his peers in 1970, the new 350z evaluated a "sweet spot" that has made it an attractive prospect for buyers who may aspire to one of the most expensive European brands, but could not afford the payments. The main competitors were the BMW Z3, à Honda S2000 and Porsche Boxster.in addition to the "interceptor", Nissan role believed that there was a strong market for a new Z The enthusiasts and buyers who loved the journey, surrounding with the last electronic, and were active in sport. The research also indicated that professionals and workers in technological fields were attracted by the combination of Design and Performance of Z. The main market for Z was the Ushowever, al of the demographic, projections and focus groups Deputes a deeper truth. The real market for the 350Z was anyone who has sought something special from driving experience - the people who asked for their daily transport to be anything but every day; Those who have faced the thrill of the road The joy of the interface with finely made machinery. The Z machine was really the emotional nucleus of Nissan. A car, President Nissan Carlos Ghosn is enthusiastic, "which reflects people's values, needs and passions". The anticipation of the adventure and enjoyment of entertainment paid by its design has led to rewarding satisfaction in its eternal benefits. Lust, then love.
